

The M&G Additional Permitted Subscription (APS) ISA

APS Application Form and Additional Subscription Eligibility Declaration

This form:

- Can be used to invest in The M&G Additional Permitted Subscription (APS) ISA for the first time
- Can be used to make an additional subscription to your M&G APS ISA
- Cannot be used to invest in The M&G Junior ISA or your personal M&G ISA

Important Information:

- Before investing, you should read an up-to-date version of the Prospectus, Key Investor Information Documents (KIIDs) and Costs and charges illustration for the fund(s) in which you wish to invest. There you will find more information about the investment, including details about the fund's different share classes: be sure to choose the appropriate one for you. It also explains fund charges, including the ongoing charge, a deduction from your fund which M&G makes to cover the costs of investment management and administration. You should also read the Important Information for Investors document, which includes M&G's Terms and Conditions
- If you have any questions or would like a free up-to-date copy of the KIID, Costs and charges illustration, Important Information for Investors document, Prospectus, Annual or Interim Fund Reports or additional application forms, please visit www.mandg.co.uk or call our Customer Relations team on 0800 390 390. All literature provided will be in English

- M&G can only accept subscriptions once the APS allowance has been received by M&G as ISA Manager or if the deceased's ISA is already held with M&G
- If you already hold an M&G ISA you will see your M&G APS ISA appear as a separate investment product in your regular ISA statement
- If a financial adviser has arranged this deal, depending upon the share class chosen, commission may be payable where advice has not been given
- You can only invest lump sums into The M&G APS ISA until either the allowance has been filled or the time frame elapsed

Before you invest:

- If you are unsure whether this investment is suitable for your needs, please consult your financial adviser

If you are a resident in the USA, in order to comply with US law, we are unable to accept your investment. If you submit an application to us it will be rejected and returned to you.

Please complete this form in blue or black ink, using CAPITAL letters and ticking the appropriate boxes.

1 Adviser details (only to be completed by a financial adviser)

For commission eligibility and FCA product sales data purposes: if you did not provide advice on this sale please tick this box

3 Your investment details

See the Important Information for Investors document and the KIID(s) for the fund(s) you are investing in for details, including overall subscription limits and share class availability. You must meet the minimum investment limit for any fund you are purchasing.

a Cash subscriptions

Please specify your choice of fund(s), the share class(es) and the amount(s) you wish to invest. If you do not specify this information your application may be rejected.

I wish to make a subscription:

- in cash and enclose a cheque made payable to M&G Securities (please complete "Lump sum amount" column below)
- with the proceeds from an M&G investment and I have enclosed the withdrawal instruction (please complete "% split" column below)

b In specie subscriptions

- in specie (by transfer of the deceased's existing ISA investments that were originally held with and have remained with M&G Securities Limited or its nominee) to the APS allowance or value as at date of transfer if lower

Please note that within the APS ISA, investments into the X share classes are not available from investors who are not dealing via a financial adviser. If you are not dealing via a financial advisor and request the in specie transfer of an X share class, we will convert your holding to the A share class in the same fund and then process your instruction.

Which investments do you wish to transfer?

If the total value of the investments to be transferred is greater than your available APS allowance, we will transfer the investments in the order they are shown in the table below (from top down) until the allowance has been used.

6 Communicating with you including Direct Marketing

We would like to let you know about M&G investment products and services that we think would be of interest to you. However, we will only contact you if you consent by ticking the boxes below to indicate how you would like us to contact you about our investment products and services and promotional offers.

You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us using the contact details in the Privacy Notice or the "Unsubscribe" option in any of our marketing electronic communications (although this will not affect the lawfulness of any past activities we have undertaken based on the previous consent). It can take a short time for any updates to be applied to our systems, so you may still receive marketing messages while this is happening. We will continue to use your contact details for non-marketing messages such as statements, changes to terms and conditions and as required by law.

Your marketing preferences

I am happy for M&G Group to contact me in the following ways about its investment products and services and promotional offers that may be of interest to me:

Privacy notice – Please detach this page and keep for future reference

Any personal information we collect from you is processed in line with applicable data protection laws including the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and this notice. When you use our website, our Privacy Policy located on our website applies.

M&G Securities Limited (“we”, “us” and “our”) is the ‘data controller’ for the personal information you share with us.

If you have any specific concerns around the privacy of your personal data or require further information about how we manage your personal information, please get in touch with us directly:

By Post: M&G Securities Limited, PO Box 9039, Chelmsford CM99 2XG

By Telephone: 0800 390390

By Email: info@mandg.co.uk

How we collect data

As an M&G customer, we collect personal data about you in connection with our products and services in the following ways:

- From your application for an M&G product or service.
- From your interactions with us whether over the phone, in person, in writing, or through our website or emails.
- Through analysis of your transactions and activities with us and other members of the M&G and Prudential group.
- From third parties, such as credit reference agencies, census, market research, comparison websites, surveys, social networks, fraud prevention agencies, loyalty schemes operators, agents working on your behalf, government and law enforcement agencies.

How the law protects you

Data Protection law says that we are allowed to use personal information only if we have a proper reason to do so. The law says we must have one of the following reasons:

- To fulfil a contract we have with you.
- When it is our legal duty.
- When it is in our legitimate interest.
- When you consent to it.

A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information including but not limited to internal administrative purposes, product development and enhancement, preventing fraud, ensuring network and information security.

How we use your personal data

The main ways in which we may use your personal information are to:

- Create your account, administer your investments, analyse your investment needs and tailor our services to you.
- Communicate with you, and provide information on specific investment products and/or services when you request it.
- Help us prevent, detect and investigate fraud and other financial crimes.
- Meet our legal obligations.
- Maintain the security of our services, as well as to detect and investigate activities that may be illegal or prohibited.

Sharing your personal information

We may share your personal information with:

- Other members or businesses within the M&G and Prudential group.
- Our service providers and third parties who provide services on our behalf, including but not limited to:
 - Agents and administrators who we use to help run your accounts.
 - Our mailing agents.
 - Credit referencing agencies.
 - Fraud prevention and law enforcement agencies.
- Regulators, governments, courts, dispute resolution bodies, auditors.

We will do this to:

- Prevent fraud and other financial crimes.
- Respond to enquiries and complaints.
- Undertake transactional analysis.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of marketing and for market research and training.
- Create customer groups, statistical and trend analysis.
- Support the provisions of service.
- Perform automated decision making and profiling.
- Comply with legal obligations, court orders, laws or regulations.

Your data may be transferred outside of the EEA from time to time to members or businesses within the M&G and Prudential group or to trusted service providers and third parties. Where this is the case, we will ensure that suitable protection is maintained at all times by ensuring that appropriate safeguards are in place.

In some countries the law may require us to share certain information, for example with tax authorities. In these cases, we will only share the data with people who have the right to see it.

Retaining your personal information

We will retain your personal information for as long as is necessary for the purposes described above. Typically, we will retain your data for a minimum of seven years to; fulfil our business purposes, to comply with legal and regulatory requirements, or for any legal claims.

We may keep your data for longer where this is necessary for statistical and historical research purposes. However, we will ensure all personally identifiable information is removed where technically feasible. We will maintain the security and protection of any information we hold.

Profiling and automated decision making

To help us make fair, efficient and accurate decisions, we may use automated processes. We also use profiling to enable us to personalise our service offerings and related communications. Automated processes or profiling may be used to:

- Open accounts – checks to ensure you meet the conditions needed, this may include checking residency, nationality and/or financial details.
- Tailor our services – We may place you in groups with similar customers. These are called customer segments. We use these to study and learn about our customers and make decisions on what we learn.
- Help us detect fraud and prevent fraud and other financial crimes – help to detect possible fraudulent or money-laundering activity or register an account is being used in an unusual way.

See also “Object to processing (Right to object)” regarding your rights for this type of use of your personal data.

Your data subject rights

As well as our obligations, and commitment, to respect the privacy of your information, you also have certain rights relating to the personal information we hold about you which are outlined below. None of these are absolute and are subject to various exceptions and limitations. You can exercise these rights at any time by contacting us using the contact details above.

You have rights to:

Request access to the information we hold about you (Data Access Request)	You may request access to a copy of the personal information we hold about you. We can refuse to provide information where to do so may reveal another person's personal data or would otherwise negatively impact another person's rights.
Object to processing (Right to object)	You may object to us using automated processes, or fully automating decision making, using your personal data except where used to detect, prevent and investigate fraud and other financial crimes. You may also object to us using your personal data for direct marketing analysis. This includes any profiling we perform as part of our direct marketing activities. Once we receive and have processed your objection, we will stop using your personal data for these purposes.
Request a copy of your data (Data Portability)	If you gave us the information directly or via the contract you have with us, and it was processed electronically, you can request the data we hold on you in a commonly used machine-readable format.
Request that your data is deleted (Right to be forgotten)	You can ask us to delete the personal information we hold about you when it is no longer required for a legitimate business need, legal or regulatory obligations or for the purposes it was collected for.
Amend or correct your information (Right to rectification)	If you believe that the personal information we hold about you is inaccurate, incorrect or incomplete, please contact us as soon as possible so we can update it.
Restrict the processing of your information (Right to restrict)	You may ask us to restrict our processing of your data whilst we resolve any complaints you have about the way your data is used, require it for a legal claim or if you think our processing is unlawful but you do not want us to delete your data.
Rights in relation to consent (Right to withdraw)	At any time, you may withdraw the consent you granted for your personal information to be used for direct marketing. When you withdraw your consent, it will not affect the lawfulness of any past activities we have undertaken based on the previous consent.

How we respond to your rights

You can exercise these rights at any time by contacting us using the contact details overleaf.

- We may need to validate your identity before we can respond to your request.
- If we are unable to confirm your identity, or have strong reasons to believe that your request is unreasonably excessive or unfounded, we may deny it.
- Once we have validated your identity, we aim to respond to your requests within 30 days and no later than three months from receipt of complex requests. We will let you know if we need additional time to complete.
- We will let you know whether we accept, or refuse, your request.

Security

We take all reasonable precautions to keep your personal information secure, including safeguards against unauthorised access, use, or data loss. This includes ensuring our staff, partners and any third parties who perform work on our behalf comply with security standards as part of their contractual obligations.

Making a data protection complaint

If you have any concerns about the use of your personal data, or the way we handle your requests relating to your rights, you can raise a complaint directly with us using the contact details overleaf.

If you are not satisfied with the way we handle your complaint, you are entitled to raise a complaint directly with the UK Information Commissioner's Office via the details available on their website: www.ico.org.uk
